

We Wonder Why We All Are Called

1 We won - der why we all are called to come to 2 This in - fant will in hum - ble guise dis - arm the 3 We'll come to that im - pov - er - ished place, and find that
4 So come, dear friends, with won - der, awe and wor - ship

Beth - le - hem's cat - tle stall. How could the God who strong and fool the wise, and bless the poor, all we our - selves need grace with all the weak, the
at his bed of straw; with shep - herds, and the formed the earth be found in such a low - ly birth?

those once scorned, in beau - ty dress, by God a - dorned.
wound - ed, lost, who gath - er 'round the man - ger trough.
host a - bove, come, wel - come Christ, the Lord of Love!

Words: Thomas N. Mousin (b. 1956) © 2024

Music: Deus tuorum militum, melody from Antiphoner, 1753; adapt. The English Hymnal, 1906, alt.

LM